

YO HO! THE MINEOLA WINS

DEFEAT FOR THE YANKEE.

In Piping Breeze Sixty-two Yachts Race on the Sound.

In the best breeze of the season so far the seventy-foot yacht Mineola and Yankee sailed a close contest on Long Island Sound yesterday in the first race of the Larchmont Yacht Club's race week series. Nip and tuck they had it all around the course, from start to finish.

The Mineola started in the lead by a few seconds. At the end of the first round of the course she led by 4 minutes 50 seconds; she led by 1 minute 58 seconds when the second round was completed, and she crossed the finish line a winner by 48 seconds. A slant of wind favored the Yankee in the last few minutes, enabling her to fetch the finish with one less tack than the Mineola. Both carried cluttopanella, and at times, on the reaches and runs, these yachts travelled at the rate of twelve knots an hour. Their speed over the whole course of 29.4 miles was at the rate of 8.06 knots an hour, and fully a third of the sailing was windward work.

Out of a sky as clear as a bell the wind came piping from the northwest when the starting whistle was blown from the committee boat Calque, lying off Larchmont Breakwater. The regatta committee, Charles P. Tower, Howell

LIVELY DAY ON LINKS

Brooklyn Golfers Win Team Match at New-Haven.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

New-Haven, Conn., July 15.—The Brooklyn Club, of Bridgeport, won the championship cup in the team matches to-day on the links of the New-Haven Country Club by nine points.

Five teams, the New-Haven Country Club, the Arawan, of Middletown; the Hartford, the Westburn and the Brooklyn, were entered to compete for the cup. Brooklyn was the only club that had already won the trophy twice since it was put up, seven years ago.

By the victory to-day of the Bridgeporters the cup becomes the permanent property of the club. The Brooklyn Club won it in 1903 and 1904.

At the end of the first eighteen holes, at noon, the New-Haven club had the lead by three points, the total score for the local club being 42, to 45 for the Bridgeport team.

In the afternoon play R. P. Curtis, of the Brooklyn Club, lowered his score from 88 for the morning to 80 for the afternoon, showing the best card of the afternoon, and winning the match for his club. The summaries of the winning club were as follows:

Name	Out.	In.	Total

LOW AND NICHOLLS WIN.

Beat Anderson and Smith in Four Ball Match by 2 and 1.

As an outcome of the professional tournament at Van Cortlandt Park a four-ball match, at 325 a corner, was played over the twelve meadow holes late Friday afternoon, in which George Low and Bernard Nicholls were pitted against Willie Anderson and Aleck Smith. A large gallery of professionals witnessed the match, and there was considerable betting on the result.

George Strath, Crescent Athletic Club, and James Laing, Eastern Parkway Golf Club, found easy money in backing Low and Nicholls, who won by 2 up and 1 to play. Low, who was in fine form, played the best golf, and did the twelve holes in 43.

Anderson and Smith won the first hole in 4 to 3. Low won the next hole in 4 by holing an eleven foot putt. The third was halved in par, and Low won the fourth by holing a six foot putt, taking the lead by 1 up.

The fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth holes were halved. Low won the tenth in two, and Low and Nicholls were down 2. Nicholls holed a 33 foot putt on the eleventh for a half, which gave them the match. The bye hole was halved in 5.
